

FALL SCHOLARSHIP WRITING COMPETITION: POETRY AND CREATIVE PROSE

(FICTION, SCRIPT OR SCREENPLAY, OR CREATIVE NONFICTION)

Competition is open to Full-time students of all years and majors. One entry each in Poetry AND Creative Prose is Permitted. The Prize scholarships will be awarded for the Spring 2021 semester

Deadline: 7:00 pm, November 23

- On the separate first page of your entry, write your name, MAJOR, ASU email, and phone number.
- You may submit in both Poetry and Prose competitions, but please keep the applications separate.
- Proofreading and polish count!

Submit by email as a Word or PDF attachment to Professor Mark Powell, powelljm1@appstate.edu between Monday, November 16 and Monday, November 23, by 7 pm

Creative Prose:
To Apply: ONE short story, playscript, screenplay, or piece of creative nonfiction (includes memoir).

Scripts must be submitted in standard format. Prose entries must be complete and self-contained. (This means please do not identify your entry as a "chapter"--- if it is a chapter of a longer work, it must be freestanding.) Please double-space prose, use 12-point font, and number pages. Maximum entry length: 23 double-spaced pages.

Poetry:
To Apply: Submit 4 poems

THE WINNERS will be notified and results will be posted on the English Department website by Monday, December 14, the final day of Fall semester.

Questions? Email ProfessorMark Powell: powelljm1@appstate.edu

Awards

- John Foster West Scholarship in Poetry BIO
$649.00 (winner from any major)
- Marjorie Idol Scholarship in Poetry
$1,161 (winner from English major)
- Marian Coe Scholarship In Creative Prose $977 (winner from any major)
- Marjorie Idol Scholarship in Creative Prose $1,161 (winner from English major)

Final Judge: TBD