

ENGLISH as a “Second Major” (Academic Concentration)
(Revised 2003)

1. General Studies Requirements: Six semester hours of literature at the 2000-level (See listing given below in II. A.) may also be applied toward satisfying the general studies humanities requirement.

II. English Concentration Requirements.....24 sh

A. Nine (9) semester hours of Literature Survey courses from the following must include one from each group. (Note: ENG 2030 is offered in the fall, ENG 2040 in the spring. All other courses listed are offered each regular term, usually in multiple sections. Check each year's summer schedule for summer school offerings, which may vary.)

- ENG 2010 (W) English Literature.....3 sh
- OR ENG 2020 (W) English Literature.....3 sh

- ENG 2030 (W) World Literature.....3 sh
- OR ENG 2040 (W) World Literature.....3 sh

- ENG 2310 (W) American Literature.....3 sh
- OR ENG 2320 (W) American Literature.....3 sh
- OR ENG 2120 (W) African-American Literature.....3 sh

B. ENG 3570 Adolescent Literature Required.

C. Six (6) semester hours from Language and Writing Courses,
ENG 3580 required.

- ENG 3300 Applied Grammar.....3 sh
- ENG 3400 Advanced Expository Writing.....3 sh
- ENG 3580 Teaching Composition: Combining Theory, Practice, and Pedagogy
.....3 sh
- ENG 3610 Studies in the Principles of Language.....3 sh
- ENG 4660 History of the English Language.....3 sh

D. Six (6) semester hours in English elective courses chosen from the 3000/4000 level.

Students selecting an Academic Concentration in English should consult with an advisor in the College of Education. Such students are also welcome to bring questions about this concentration to the following persons in the Department of English: Dr. Mark Vogel (320 Sanford Hall; 262-2892;), Dr. Elaine Q'Quinn (216 Sanford Hall; 262-6894), and in an emergency, Dr. Jeanne Dubino (200 Sanford Hall 262-3098).