

FALL SCHOLARSHIP WRITING COMPETITION: POETRY AND CREATIVE PROSE (FICTION, SCRIPT OR SCREENPLAY, OR CREATIVE NONFICTION)

Competition is open to full-time students of all years and majors. One entry each in Poetry AND Creative Prose is Permitted. The prize scholarships will be awarded for the Spring 2020 semester.

Deadline: 4:00 pm, Nov. 14, 2019

- Write your name, MAJOR, ASU email and phone number on the first page of each poem or prose entry.
- Please look for the entry box, double-check that entry complies with guidelines, sign the entry log, and put each entry in a separate manila envelope or file folder.
- Envelopes or folders will be provided in the drop-off area. You may submit in both Poetry and Prose competitions, but please keep the applications separate.
- Proofreading and polish count!

THE WINNERS will be notified and results will be posted by the final day of Fall exams, December 11, 2019

Creative Prose:

To Apply: Submit a file folder or envelope with 3 stapled copies each of either ONE short story, play script, screenplay, or piece of creative nonfiction (includes memoir). Scripts must be submitted in standard format. Prose entries must be complete and self-contained. (This means please do not identify your entry as a "chapter"--- if it is a chapter of a longer work, it needs to be able to stand on its own.) Please double-space prose; number pages and staple them.

Poetry

TO APPLY: Submit 3 stapled sets of 4 poems per set (So First Set is Poems, 1, 2, 3, 4; Second Set is Poems 1, 2, 3, 4; etc.)

Final Judge: Novelist and Fall 2020 Visiting Writer Charles Dodd White

Charles Dodd White is the author of a short story collection and three novels, including the IN THE HOUSE OF WILDERNESS, which was named the 2018 Appalachian Book of the Year by the Appalachian Writers Association. He has been recognized for excellence in Appalachian writing with the Chaffin Award. He lives in Knoxville, Tennessee, and he teaches English at Pellissippi State Community College.
